DE WITT C. WHEELER'S PLACE

BUGB GARDNER REJECTED AND COL. IOEL W. MASON NOMINATED. The Relly-Arthur Combination Honging Together on the Police Commissionership, but Nearly Stampeded by Having Col. Mason's Name to Vote Upon Before Setting Orders. Mayor Cooper declared, on Sunday, the hib inst, that on the following Tuesday be should nominate Hugh Gardner to the Board of Aidermen for Police Commissioner, in the place of De Witt C. Wheeler, whose term expired on May 1, 1878. John J. O'Brien, Robert G. McCord, Bernard Biglin, Solon B. Smith, and other Republican Ward politicians went to work at once to prerent Mr. Gardner's nomination. They decided that the surest way to accomplish their purpose was to prevent a meeting of the Board of Aldermen. They came in a body to the City Hall, on Puesday morning, May 11, and took possestion of the Aldermen's sitting room. They took such Tammany and Republican City Father saide as he came in and urged him not to attend the meeting. President Morris replied to their appeal that he should go to the meeting and should force Mr. Gardner's confirmation, if here were votes enough to confirm him. Re-publican Aldermen Jacobus and Wade also deslared their intention of attending the meeting. The politicians' efforts with the nine Tammany Aldermen and Republican Aldermen Finck, McClave, and Perley were successful, and when he Board was called to order only the seven Democratic Aldermen and three Republican Dity Fathers were in their seats. President Morris thereupon adjourned the Board because a quorum of members was not in attendance. Mr. O'Brien and his followers went away satsfied with their day's work, but fully resolved to prevent Mr. Gardner from being a Police Commissioner. They know that the Mayor would nominate him at the first meeting of the Board of Aldermen, and they doubted their thility again to keep the Aldermen away. They herefore determined to bring about Mr. Gardper's rejection if he should be nominated. They were certain that at least eight of the nine Fammany Aldermen would oppose Mr. Gard-ser, and they knew that Joseph P. Strack, a Democratic Alderman, had gone to St. Louis and would not be at the Board's next meeting. If they could persuade two of the remaining thirteen Aldermen to vote against Mr. Gardner they could prevent his confirmation, as twelve wotes are required to confirm a nominee for any office. They first tried to secure Mr. Gardner's defeat by Democratic votes, and with that end in view approached one of the Democratic Aldermen. They made him many promises of future political preferement if he would break with his party and vote against Mr. Gardner. The Alderman refused their offers and declared that he would vote for Mayor Cooper's nominees. Mr. O'Brien then found that Mr. Gardner must be beaten by Republican votes. The votes of Aldermen McClave, Finck and Perley were soon secured. Alderman McClave is the lieutenant of Col. Joel W. Mason, the Republican lender in the Sevenceenth Assembly District, and wishes to have Col. Mason made a Police Commissioner. He was, therefore, willing to oppose Mr. Girdner, Alderman Finck lives in Mr. O'Brien's district, and is much under the control of that politician. Alderman Perley wishes to make his prother, ex-Fire Commissioner, and recently tried o make a bargain with an influential anti-fammany man by which the ex-Fire Commissioner might be nominated for that office, and both he and Thomas H. McAvov the Mayor's nominee for Superintendent of Buildings, be sonfirmed. Another reason given for Alderman Perley's Willingness to vote against Mr. Bardner is his intimacy with Solon B. Smith, a Republican ward politician, who had trouble with Mr. Gardner when the latter was a member of the Police Board.

These three Aldermen called on the Mayor on Monday alternoon, and, after failing to induce him not to nominate Mr. Gardner, declared that they would vote to reject him if he was sominated. Some of the Republican leaders ried on Monday night to alter the determination of the three Aldermen. But finding that hoes efforts were fruitiess they asked that the action on Mr. Gardner's nomination might be postuponed for a week, and, to effect tha and would not be at the Board's next meeting. If they could persuade two of the remaining thirteen Aldermen to vote against Mr. Gardner

Mr. President, I oner the following resolu-dons."

President Morris paid no attention to the Ai-ferman, but, handing Deputy Clerk William H. Moloney a paper, said: "A communication from the Mayor." Clerk Moloney rend that the Mayor nominated Hugh Gardner for Police Commissioner in the place of De Witt C. Wheeler.

Wheeler.
Alderman Jacobus promptly moved to refer the nomination to the Committee on Police and Fire Departments. The motion was voted down by 3 to 17, the affirmative votes being those of President Morris and Aldermen Jacobus and Wade. Alderman Perley, who had arreed in the morning to vote for the motion, voted against it.

President Morris thereupon said that the guestion before the Board was on the confirmation of Mr. Gurdeer. Then Republican Alderman John McClave took the floor. "I am one of the Aldermen," he said, "who believe that Mr. Gardner's nomination should be voted upon at once, and I apprehend that when his record whom he was a Police Commissioner is brought to the attention of this Board he will be rejected," The Alderman then recited the House of the Alderman then the property of the House of House of and Ropublican Alderman Finck, McClave, and Perley voted against confirmation.

Fresident Morris thereupon declared that Mr. Gardner, having received but ten votes, was rejected.

The three Ropublican opponents of Mr. Gardner and O Briefs party exchanged significant giances, and Solon B. Smith rushed from the chamber and ran to carry the news to President French of the Police Department, who was waiting in the District Attorney's office.

Immediately upon his announcement of Mr. Gardner's rejection, President Morris presented a message from the Mayor nominating James Talcott for Park Commissioner, in the place of James F. Wenman, whose term has expired. Mr. Taicott was rejected by 9 to 12. President Morris and Republican Aldermen Jacobus and Wade and the six Democratic Alderman voting in the affirmative, and the nine Tammany Aldermen and Republican Aldermen Finck, McClave, and Perley in the negative.

At this point Col. John Tracev, the Mayor's chief cierk, entered the chamber and handed a document to President Morris. Tammany Alderman Sauer syrang to his feet and made another attempt to offer his resolutions concerning the late Chief Judge Church. President Morris did not recognize him, but handed the Mayor's message to Deputy Clerk Moloney, It nominated Col. Joel W. Mason for Police Commissioner, in the place of De Witt C. Wheeler. The Alderman were surprised, and for a moment looked at one another, not one apparently knowing what to do. Alderman McClave, who had made his fight against Mr. Gardner because he wished to have his friend Col. Mason mades a Police Commissioner, moved uneasily in his seat, and walked half around the circle, Just then Mr. John J. O'Brien stepped behind Alderman Finck, and said in an undertone. "Go. As over." The Alderman heckney her firmative votes were those of Alderman Heckney her firmative votes were those of Alderman Heckney her president Morris and Alderman Perley (Republicans), and Alderman Sucery, Hall. Yesterday Chief of Police Givin was waited on by John H. Stokley of Wilmington, Delaware, in reference to the identification of the photograph of the boy Carter, who was found dead in a barn in Titusville, Fa. Mr. Stokley was shown the biotograph, and was visibly affected. He said that the picture resembled his young son, Willie B. Stokley, who left his home fifteen months ago, and who since that time nover wrote to his parents. Mr. Stokley said he was induced to call at the Central to see the photograph by a letter he received on May 5, dated Limestone, N. Y. about fifty-five miles from Titusville, and signed "A Tramp." It stated that the boy Carter was Mr. Stokley's young son. The father also showed the Chief a photograph of the boy, which was taken after he had been brought home, after running away a couple of years ago. This photograph somewhat resembled the one sent by the Titusville authorities. The father and the officials at the Central think that this is the right boy, but to make it certain Chief Givin will to-day write to Titusville, asking if there were any beculiar marks on the dead body, which the father said were on one of the ankles of his son. Since the accident at Titusville over 150 men and women have called at the Central to identify the photograph as the likeness of children who had departed from their homes.

The Committee Openly Assert that the Re ceiver Acted in Violation of Law-That he Manipulated the Scentities of the Hank for his Personal Profit-How be Bid it.

The Committee on Banking and Currency of the House of Representatives have made a report on the operations of Theodore M. Davis while receiver of the Ocean Bank of this city. The report is confined to his manipulation of the bonds of the Portage Lake and Lake Superior Canal Company, found among the assets of the bank. The report asserts that after paying seventy per cent, of the indebtedness of the bank the receiver had $2,200,000 in good, bad, and doubtful assets to liquidate $380,000 due to depositors. Five hundred and sixty-one thousand deliars of these assets were canal bonds. These bonds represented 400,000 acres of iron and pine lands granted by the State of Michi gan, in pursuance of an act of Congress, to aid in the construction of a ship canal from Portage Lake to Lake Superior. They were variously estimated to be worth from $3,500,000 to $10,000,000. The completion of the canal would give a good title to the property. On the once began an absolute divorce sult and a suit for abandonment. The former was decided in her favor and the latter was settled. Mrs.

Reuter, however, continued to act as Mr.
Schulten's housekeeper. Two months ago Mrs.
Catharine Uster sued her husband. John Uster,
a shoemaker, of South Third and Tenth streets, Brooklyn, for absolute divorce, and about the same time John Uster sued Major Schulten for $8,000 damages for criminal conversation.
Mrs. Uster being successful in her divorce suit,
the suit of her husband was withdrawn.
In the midst of the litigation Major Schulten assigned his house and lot at 25 Wallabout street to Mrs. Reuter in consideration of a dobt of $800 due to her for services as housekeeper.
Some time afterward Mrs. Reuter says that Schulten induced her to reassign to him a portion of the property, and she says that he promised her that if she would do so he would marry her. After obtaining the conveyance, she says.
Schulten not only failed to keep his promise, but just as soon as Mrs. Uster obtained her divorce Mr. Schulten discharged her (Mrs. Reuter), and employed as housekeeper Mrs. Uster, who is much younger. Mrs. Reuter at once began replevin proceedings for the possession of the house in Wallabout street, and on Friday last a constable took possession of the house.
Then she began the suit for pay for fourteen years' services as housekeeper.

SWIFT JUSTICE.

River Thieves Indicted, Arraigned, and Sentenced the Day after the Crime. The four harbor thieves who were captured on Monday morning by Mate John Williams and the crew of the schooner Victor, in Finshing Bay, were arraigned before Justice Morgan, in the Yorkville Police Court, yesterday. James McMahon, Joseph Lynch, and them. He replied that unless they kept away he would blow their brains out. Moran swam over to the schooner's boat, and was driven off. He then swam back to his own boat, and clung there until picked up by Capt, Elijah Price of the schooner Eliza Hebecca. Justice Morgan committed the four men in default of $3.000 bail each.

A policeman took the papers in the case of Reilly, McMahon. Lynch, and Moran to Chief Clerk Clark of the District Attorney's office, at about 11 o'clock. He said that Capt, Piggott of the Victor was anxious to sail. Mr. Clark sent the papers before the Grand Jury at once, and when the Grand Jury entered the General Sessions, at 1 o'clock, they presented indictments for burgiary in the first degree, and for assault upon Mate Williams with intent to kill. Assistant District Attorney Rollins took the indictments from Clerk Hall's hand, and called Reilly, MoMahon, Lynch, and Moran to the bar. They beaded guilty to the indictment charging them with assault, and to the third count of the indictment for burgiary.

Special Hotices. LIBERTY!

ATTENTION, SMOKERS! ATTENTION, SMOKERS:

You are probably aware that an attempt is now being made by an association of wealthy tobacco manufacturers and jobbers to force dealers to charge exorbitant prices for their goods, and by threats of stopping their supply they have aircady truthened the majority of dealers into complying with their demands. We have regarded all persuasion and defied their threats. We propose to continue amplying makers with averything the continue amplying to be continued. resided all persuation and defied their threats. We propose to continue supplying smokers with everything in the totacce line at bottom prices, and we ask the support of the public in this battle with greedy exteritorists.
